Sindhi Program in Dubai

“Sindhyaat Jee Goonj”

Sindhis of Dubai are in for yet another Sindhi extravaganza treat par excellence, brimming with folkloric music, dance and comedy, as Asha Chand is well poised to stage her annual Sindhi show “Sindhyaat Jee Goonj” on 7th November 2014 at the Sheikh Rashid Auditorium in Dubai.

Shri Ram Jethmalani, Member of Parliament of India, Senior Supreme Court Advocate has kindly consented to be the Chief Guest of the event.

“Sindhyaat Jee Goonj” referring to the Resonance of Sindhi Culture through Sindhi Music, dance and drama, will feature well known singers and drama artists from India and Pakistan. While Manjushree Tejwani from India will enthrall the audience singing Sindhi numbers with her powerful stirring voice, Barkat Ali from Sindh, will touch your heart with his soft musical renderings of selected Ghazals and Kalams. The show will also feature foot tapping dances showcasing folklore cultural music adapted to modern beats. Honey Khilwani, a talented child star, who has excelled in her performances in “India’s Best Dramebaaz” on Zee TV, participating in 22 acts over 4 month will also perform along with her versatile father Mahesh Khilwani, a well established TV and Drama Artist, both in serious or comedy roles.

Asha’s shows have the remarkable quality of creating spontaneous unity amongst people who share the same cultural identity despite national borders. States Asha, “Culture is what adds colour, life and meaning to the world. It is our responsibility to preserve age old traditions, otherwise a great wealth will be buried never to be retrieved” she admonishes. She explains, “Being the fifteenth year of the Sindhi Sangat Show, we want to pack the best of entertainment for our audience”.
